

Saints Peter and Paul High School

Introduction

Saints Peter and Paul High School is a Roman Catholic, co-educational college preparatory school on the Eastern Shore of Maryland which serves students from grades 9 through 12. The school was founded by Saints Peter and Paul Parish and the Dominican Sisters of New York in 1958, and it has a tradition of excellence in academics, athletics and achievement. Saint Peter and Paul High School endeavors to graduate students who can think critically, creatively and globally, where they join with faculty in a quest for wisdom, knowledge, and grace. As a Roman Catholic Institution of learning, Saints Peter and Paul strives to empower our students with the strength of character, ethics, conviction, and knowledge necessary to cope with and exert influence upon our dynamic world. We increasingly challenge our students and foster their roles as independent thinkers, active participants in life, and responsible citizens of a global community. We create a diverse and demanding program of academics, with student life opportunities and spiritual formation. We encourage our students to take ownership in learning, to accept the challenge of intellectual and personal responsibility, and to strive for excellence.
