

York Catholic High School

Introduction

York Catholic High School is an accredited, co-educational institution for students grades 7-12 operated by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg in Pennsylvania. Founded in 1929, York Catholic High School provides a safe, family-oriented environment that will encourage sound academics and respect for self and others. York Catholic has a reputation for high quality academics and maintains the quality of excellence, which continues to merit the approval and accreditation from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. Students are encouraged and challenged to develop a mature, faith-filled and moral vision of themselves and their world spiritually, socially, intellectually, emotionally, and physically. The school offers students a wide array of extracurricular activities, clubs, art and cultural enrichment programs, community service activities and student publications. A comprehensive education program is offered which includes advanced placement classes, honors and accelerated courses, and college dual credit options. At York Catholic, excellent teaching and innovated curriculums lead to high enrollment rates. York Catholic's team name is the Fighting Irish and its school's colors are green and gold.
